Section VI, Qualifications and Duties of Counsel

4. Counsel's Duty in Pretrial Release:

A. Counsel should be prepared to present to the appropriate judicial officer a statement of the factual circumstances and the legal criteria supporting release and, where appropriate, make a proposal concerning conditions of release.

B. Where the client is not able to obtain release under the conditions set by the court, counsel should consider pursuing modification of the conditions of release under the procedures available.

C. If the court sets conditions of release which require the posting of a monetary bond or the posting of real property as collateral for release, counsel should make sure the client understands the available options and the procedures that must be followed in posting such assets.

D. The decision as to whether or not the client should testify at any bond hearing shall be made after consultation between counsel and the client. In the event that the client and counsel decided that it would be in the best interests of the client to testify regarding bond, counsel should instruct his or her client not to answer any questions that do not pertain strictly to the issue of bond.
