

Practice Standards

December, 2012

Section I, Introduction

1. Purpose:

These standards are intended to encourage and allow attorneys representing indigent and all other persons entitled to public legal representation to perform to a high standard of representation and to promote excellence and professionalism in the representation of those persons. The following standards are adopted to foster a legal representation system in which:

A. The public legal representation function, including the selection, funding, and payment of counsel for indigent clients, is as independent from political influence and judicial supervision as possible given the geographic and demographic diversity of the State of Montana;

B. Those persons entitled to public legal representation are adequately represented through a legal services delivery system consisting of defender offices, the active participation of the private bar, or both;

C. Applicants requesting legal services based upon indigence are screened for eligibility based upon uniform standards, then assigned and notified of an appointment as soon as is practically possible;

D. Counsel has sufficient time, confidential space, and confidential electronic communications to converse with the client;

E. Counsel's workload matches counsel's capability;

F. Counsel's ability, training, and experience match the complexity of the case;

G. To the extent possible, the same attorney continuously represents the client until completion of the case;

H. Counsel for a client entitled to public legal representation has parity of resources with opposing counsel and is included as an equal partner in the justice system; and,

I. Counsel is required to obtain continuing legal education and training.
